A black and white photograph of a marching band performing outdoors on a grassy field. The band members are wearing light-colored shirts and dark pants, and are arranged in a line, playing brass instruments. A large drum is visible in the background.

Livingston, Montana

So often I think of why I'm here.
Why I see the stars.
Why love makes me feel good,
and the hate a person shows makes me cringe.

I guess it's all part of growing up.
To show the world what I really am,
this is my fondest desire.
To show the world that there's more to life than hate, greed and poverty. I find myself wanting to show all of you that the world can be filled with love, beauty and freedom.
This is my world and I'll prove it.

Dan O'Haire

DEDICATION

to Mr. David Kirkpatrick

Mr. Kirkpatrick, we dedicate this to you.
Although but a small tribute, in appreciation of thirteen years of dedication to Park High, this is meant as a simple "thank you".
A thank you, to not only a vice-principal,
but a teacher,
counselor,
and friend. . . always there.
Showing us the way,
And leading us when we go astray.
For doing your utmost to prepare us for life,
In a world which wouldn't be quite so bad if there were more people like you - people who CARE.

Message From Mr. Long

In the few fleeting moments that you have spent at Park Senior High School you have written a record on the book for everyone to see and know for all times.

This senior class can certainly take pride in its accomplishments during 1970-71.

Graduates of the class of '71 will be going into a changing world with all the prerogatives, privileges and responsibilities of adults. With the power to vote must certainly come the burden of governmental responsibility never before experienced by a group so young. I wish you the best of success.

Mr. Jesse Long

President Lindie Fink, Vice-President Sandy Worthington, Secretary-Treasurer Denise Cobb, and the other members of the Art Club work together with Mr. Matteson on projects for the benefit and beautification of our school and community. We have the Art Club to thank for the lovely Christmas decorations around our school which lent to the gay, yuletide spirit of the season. Special bus trips have been arranged for members to visit different places of artistic interest. In order to fund an art scholarship the club sponsored two exciting events this year — the Dating Game and the Easter Egg Hunt.

Mini, midi, or maxi? Anything goes, according to Cheryl Schreiner, president of the Fashion Board. Chosen for their poise, knowledge of fashion, and attitude, they keep Park High up-to-date on the newest trends in dressing with their seasonal fashion shows featuring clothes advertised by local merchants. The September fashion show, "Fall into Winter", was a tremendous success. As for the future: more fashion shows.

The F.F.A. actively participated in several competitions and contests including the Land and Cattle Judging Convention at Bozeman and a Small Motors Convention in Belgrade. They also sent two delegates to Kansas City for the National F.F.A. Convention. The annual F.F.A. banquet was also part of this year's activities.

The G.A.A. does more than just provide an opportunity for fun and relaxation. President, Sandy Worthington; Vice-President, Lori Cantwell; and the other G.A.A. officers, Secretary-Treasurer, Lindie Fink; Points-keeper, Lynn Wilkinson; and Sportshead, Laurie Warfield have done a fine job in helping Mrs. Judy Olson, advisor, offer a wide variety of activities. In addition to their weekly sports activities, G.A.A. also held a Halloween party and overnighter during the past year.

"We Build", the motto of the Key Club, fits it aptly. Through a diversity of activities...such as selling flag contracts for the J.C.'s, selling peanuts for Kiwanis to help support Little League and a scholarship, and clean-up in the community...the club serves both town and school. Doug Craig, this year's president, turned his gavel over to Tom Toscano last May and we can be assured of another year of "building".

Rangerettes practice daily to perfect their marching and dance routines which they perform during the half-times of basketball and football games. They also stage the Rangerette Extravaganza and perform in a drill team competition in Butte.

Todas A Uno (all for one), the motto of the Spanish Honor Society, certainly applies. Under the direction of President Gayle Ricci, the members of this organization, all of whom hold a "B" average or better in Spanish are dedicated to the cause of spreading interest and obtaining recognition of the Spanish language. The members plan activities relating to their study of Spain such as the traditional pinata Christmas party and the Spanish dinner held during the spring.

T. N. T. is responsible for many of the services found at Park. Everything from selling candy at basketball games to staging the Christmas formal is handled by T. N. T. The T. N. T. banquet and the spring initiation are favorites among the members.

Tumblers

The Tumblers practice diligently to provide enjoyable half-time entertainment for the home basketball games. Their performances are deeply appreciated by all fans.

Usherettes, a girls' service club, helps at sports events by ushering, selling programs, and holding ropes. They also sell candy at football games. Another service they perform is maintaining the activities sign in the front of the school. They also hold an annual Usherette banquet.

A'Cappella

Row 1 l. to r.: M. Riffe, R. Richter, K. Blanchard, S. Bell, K. Pelz, B. Mitzkus, S. Smith, N. Weston, M. Robb, B. Walton, B. Miles, S. Boe, K. Rowles, M. Kenna, K. Nelson, Row 2 l. to r.: N. Ma-ma-me-mo-moo. No, it's not any strange foreign language. It's most likely the sound of the A'Cappella choir "warming up." A typical day would yield Mrs. Faas directing the choir in rehearsal for a concert, or the District Music Festival, held in Helena April 16-17, with Sandy Smith sitting calmly at the piano. Christmas was a busy time for the choir. In addition to their annual concert, this year they made a tape for KPRK and went caroling at both rest homes and the hospital.

Girls' Chorus

Row 1 l. to r.: D. Valgamore, J. Johnson, I. Indreland, P. Ward, D. Lewis, S. Deutsch, C. Boehm, K. Maroney, C. Pelz, L. Sandman, Mrs. C. J. Faas, Row 2 l. to r.: S. Angle, M. Poeschl, C. Pope, P. Mussetter, M. LeFevre, D. Johnson, L. Madding, S. McCalla, B. Heath, P. Heib, S. Lindeman, B. Burns, Row 3 l. to r.: B. Aho, K. Connelly, M. Burns, L. Stipp, R. Davis, V. Mann, D. Mathis, S. Baxter, L. Blair, M. Dunn, K. Pederson, J. Glenn.

The Girls' Chorus, a new choral group this year at Park is partially responsible for the lovely music heard throughout the halls of the hospital and rest homes during the Christmas season, and our own halls at the Christmas and spring choral concerts. Under the direction of Mrs. Faas, with accompaniment graciously supplied by Marcia LeFevre and Cheryl Pelz, these girls work very hard to increase their musical ability and strive toward a good performance, a goal which they have more than accomplished.

Mixed Ensemble

Row 1 l. to r.: M. Riffe, S. Boe, M. Clemons, P. Evje, J. Rogers, P. Kastelitz, Mrs. C. J. Faas, director, Row 2 l. to r.: G. Chaney, B. Whitney, P. Warfield, M. Radel, M. Martin, S. Wedel, R. Campanella, B. O'Conner, K. Massey.

Madrigals

Madrigals, a term traditionally meaning short love poems or unaccompanied part-song, takes on an entirely new definition at our school, as a group of 16 lovely girls, whose singing rivals the most beautiful of poems. The madrigals sang for the Patriotic Program presented at the Legion in February, and the district festival in Helena.

Does getting up half an hour earlier to come to school and sing seem worth it to you? These kids don't seem to mind, which is understandable, considering they are specially chosen for this ensemble, comprised of some of the best voices in our school. Accompanied by Sandy Smith, the mixed ensemble represented Park very well at the Legion Auxilliary and the district music festival at Helena.

Concert Band

Fink, L. Ward.

John Phillip Sousa couldn't have been prouder if he could have heard the band Park High has to boast of. The Concert Band played a Christmas concert at Friendship Manor and four other concerts during the course of the year. Members of the band are involved in smaller groups such as string and woodwind ensembles and the Pep Band, which faithfully provides music for cheers, our school song, and the Rangerettes at games and pep assemblies. Both the Pep Band and Concert Band have been involved in fundraising events this past year to purchase new blazers for the Pep Band and uniforms for the Concert Band.

Poster Parties

"Is it soup yet?" Strange as this may seem, it must have been a factor in leading the Rangers to victory over the Bozeman Hawks. For this and the many other catchy slogans and colorful posters displayed about our halls before each athletic event, we have the Pep Club to thank. President Alyce Calhoun and Secretary-Treasurer Gretchen Regele have done a fine job in leading the members of this organization in promoting school spirit, the purpose of this club.

Rangerettes in the Homecoming Parade

Senior float - First place winner

HOMEcoming '71 was one to remember! As always, the day was windy, floats were blowing, but the spirits of the students held together.

In the morning parade, the seniors placed first in the float judging with their "Mighty Ranger", made of chicken wire and an extra large pair of levis. The Rangerettes performed and the band marched. The queen candidates rode luxuriously in a Thunderbird convertible.

During halftime at the game, Sherron Carrell and Doug Craig were crowned the HOMEcoming royalty. The Rangers added the perfect touch by defeating the Anaconda Copperheads 26-25.

The event ended with the annual HOMEcoming dance sponsored by the senior class.

Hard Times Happening...

I've heard school called a prison before, but a funny farm?" Couples seemed to literally "crawl out of the woodwork" to fill the cafeteria at the annual F.F.A. hard times Harvest Ball.

Queen Bonnie Miles reigned over this festive occasion; assisted by her right hand man, Harvey, the gigantic hot pink poodle she was presented with.

Kathy Frelich and Frank Hallett weren't exactly trying to start a new fad, however, they did take the prize for the worst dressed couple, in their ready-made grubs.

No Harvest Ball would be complete without a hillbilly parson. Lindie Fink adequately filled the bill, complete with ring and license. (Heaven help the vice squad if they ever find that guy who was dragged to the altar 3 times).

TNT Christmas Formal

When the crepe paper is pulled down, the decorations stored, the corsages wilted and thrown away, and the formals hung back in the closet for another year and some for the last time, only memories remain. Memories of "This Magic Moment", the 1970 TNT Christmas Formal.

The formal began on December 30 at 8:30 p.m. when Sharon Mayer and her escort, Greg Hampson, led the ninety-three couples in the grand march. The evening was highlighted by the presentation of one dozen roses by TNT vice-president, Diane Schultz, to the newly crowned queen of the formal, Sharon Mayer.

Everyone then danced to the music of a group from Bozeman, The Reese Valley Orchard.

The hard work of the TNT girls, the beautiful decorations, and the memories of "This Magic Moment" will be treasured by all those who attended.

The top five ranking members of the tennis team are Gary Walton, 1st; Joe Fleming, 2nd; Rick Baskett, 3rd; Al Olson, 4th and Don Lewis, 5th. The team ranked second at Divisionals in Helena.

Coach Silks says, "With work this summer and fall, in addition to the experience this spring, the nine juniors and one sophomore on the team should improve on their second place Southern Divisional finish in 1972."

Some of the accomplishments in golf this year were the second place team standing at the Livingston Invitational meet and Penny Jo and Gretchen going to State. Mike Kitts also shot a low 85 at Divisionals.

Craig Ingram, Mike Kitts, Bill Bliler, and Jeff Logan were in the boys' team at divisionals.

Sandy Smith, Kirk Peterson, and Michelle Jehowski all placed in their divisions at the Anaconda speech meet.

Off to a speech meet.

Experimenting with make-up.

A multitude of activities comprised the speech and play productions classes this year. Three one-act plays were presented to the public in the fall and "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" was given to the elementary schools in the spring. And all during the year Park students were participating in speech meets at Bozeman, Helena, Billings, Anaconda and Missoula.

OF POEMS, PRAYERS AND PROMISES AND THINGS THAT WE BELIEVE IN,
How sweet it is to love someone,
How right it is to care,
How long it's been since yesterday,
And what about tomorrow?
And what about our dreams
And all the memories we shared?

Farewell...

...Class of '71

Goodbye and Hello

I could tell you things that would curl your hair
How I've spent my life watching, experiencing, living something
I thought would never end, but It has...
"Goodbye" and "Hello"
The good time the bad the tears of happiness, sadness.....
Living, Loving, Laughing....
Caring
For one another.
And now the wind has blown these beautiful things away and left only traces called memories.
My friends, my enemies
the dances, basketball games football games
Memories.....
The lounge, posters counselors teachers even

Principals and of course
Vice-principals,
Memories....
All preparing me for something I've shoved away long enough
The realities of life
And now
I'm part of the institution's long line of history.
but as I walk out the doors
free
I'm frightened of my freedom.
and the security and warmth of this place is gone It's like being locked outside on a cold wintry morning.
It looks pretty bad when you're in there but Brothers and Sisters
It's cold outside.
"Goodbye" and "Hello"

Steve Kramer
